GRAPHICS.

Mrs. Leech for Millinery. Don't forget Dr. Johnson extracts teeth without pain.

Subject at the Baptist church Sunday morning, "The Nativity of Christ."

Don't forget the entertainment for the benefit of the park fund, Thursday night, December 26.

Ed. Ely closed his meeting at Bloomfield last week with 42 additions. He will spend the holidays with his mother at Siloam Springs, Ark.

Mr. Ed C. Ray, of Fort Worth, Tex., an employee of the United States Railway Mail service, is home for the holidays and to attend the wedding of his sister, Miss Nannie.

The fire boys saved our wood house when McCall's barn was burning, and they have our thanks. To lose wood house and fuel at the opening of winter is a calamity that would be especially severe on a newspaper man.

There will be a joint meeting of Macon and Mount Salem Bible Institutes at Wilsontown Baptist church, December 27 and 28, 1895. A very interesting program has been arranged, and all are invited to the services.

M. E. Church, South, Sunday at 11 a. m., preaching by Rev. H. P. Bond, state agent of the American Bible Society. Monday Dec. 23d. Quarterly Conference and preaching at 7 p. m. by Rev. John Anderson P. E. of Macon District.

The W. C. T. U. will celebrate its twenty-second anniversary next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Christian church. A brief history of their work will be given and interesting phases of the work will be discussed. All are invited.

The ladies of the I. O. O. F. will give a literary and musical entertainment at the Opera House Thursday evening, December 26, for the benefit of the park improvement fund. The entertainment will be given under the direction of Robert Darton.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mr. Edward Mays White of Burnham, Mo., and Miss Nannie Hays Ray, of this city, Thursday evening, December 26. The marriage will take place at the First Baptist church at 8 o'clock.

Christmas services of unusual interest will be held in the First Presbyterian church next Sabbath at 11 a. m. The pastor will be assisted by Mr. S. D. Gordon, State Secretary of Y. M. C. A., who will make an address. Mrs. Hollister, Miss Gordon and others will sing. Everybody cordially invited.

During the storm Tuesday morning J. M. McCall's barn was struck by lightning and burned. Owing to the delay in turning in the alarm the building was not reached by the fire company until it was beyond their power to save it. The company, however, did effective work in saving surrounding property.

The President has issued his annual Message to Congress; now come Evans & Craig with their message to the People. You will find it a great deal more of interest to your purse to investigate their goods and get prices. You will save more money by buying your groceries of them than you would by a reduction of the tariff. They are for Cash for revenue.

PERSONALS.

J. Lorange, of Queen City, was in the city Tuesday.

G. R. Voorhies, of Greentop, was in the city Tuesday.

Miss Nellie Perrin, of Queen City, was the guest of Mrs. W. J. Eckert Sunday.

Miss Carrie Stringer will leave Saturday for her home in Humphreys, Mo., to spend the holidays.

Mr. Lawrence Stablein, who is attending medical lectures in St. Louis, is home for the holidays.

Miss Florence Chappell returned Friday from a three weeks' visit with relatives at Meadville.

Mr. John Edmonds returned Friday from Montgomery City where he had been visiting his mother.

Dr. Hubert Hannah came up from St. Louis Wednesday and will remain until the close of the holiday season.

Chas. M. Martin, of Gibbs, Mr. John Saddle and daughter, Miss Mary, of Linderville, C. W. Reynolds and Mrs. Geo. Reynolds of Sperry, were in the city Monday.

Dr. R. M. Fowler, of Greentop, was in the city Wednesday. In addition to taking care of his large practice, he is buying corn, and has already cribbed 5000 bushels.

C. W. Simler, of Yamhill, Oregon, is in the city this week shaking hands with old friends after an absence of twenty-five years and six months. He left us fine samples of wheat and oats grown in the valley of the Willamette river, and he claims that for climate and products they can beat the world. If he stays in the "New Missouri" a few months, he will lose much of his Oregon enthusiasm.

The entertainment given by the A. M. E. church last Friday evening netted the church $18. The entertainment was under the management of Misses Dora Bradshaw, Julia Jones, Elinora Eubanks and Rosa Nicholas.

Marshall C. Hankins, of Chicago, in the employ of Enos Garrett, near Millard, stole $39.50 from Amos Star Monday and started for Kirksville. Mr. Star went to Millard and notified the train men just as the train was leaving for Kirksville. They kept a lookout for Hankins and discovered him near the track south of town. They informed Marshall Scott who went out and arrested him. When captured he had $39.90 on his person. He said that he had not spent any of the money as he had not had an opportunity to do so. He was tried before Justice Richy Monday afternoon and plead guilty. Failing to give bond he was sent to jail.

WRIGHT—At the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Garwood, Dec. 5, 1895, Mr. Samuel Wright aged 83 years. Mr. Wright came here from Ohio a year ago to visit his daughter and other relatives. The remains were taken to Mt. Victory, Ohio for burial.

DERAMER—At the home of his sister, Mrs. W. G. Fout, of consumption, Saturday evening, December 14, 1895, Mr. Millard DeRamer, aged 33 years. Funeral Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Funeral service was conducted by Rev. J. E. Pierce, of the M. E. Church.

Fout & McChesney do not urge you to buy of them, but they would like for you to look through their stock before making your Christmas purchases.

Clothing—Overcoats.

Never, no never does the Famous Dry Goods Co., permit any house, any man, or any firm to undersell it on any article. A little play is being enacted in Kirksville to fool the people on clothing, and in order to knock the sham clear out on the first round, our entire stock of men's suits, overcoats, pants, boys' and children's clothing—all bought new and fresh, will be sold at prices that will paralyze little clothing stores. All you need do is to get prices around town and then come to us and save from 10 to 25 cents on every dollar's worth. Overcoats in abundance. All wool warranted pants that "warriors" are selling at $3.00 we sell at $1.98. Call and buy.

PICKLER'S FAMOUS North Side.

Fout & McChesney have beautiful albums, story books, trinket boxes, dolls and toys. Their line will suit all tastes and pocket books.

Those beautiful toilet cases and trinket boxes at Fout & McChesney's are very reasonable in price and just the things for Christmas presents.

TREAT, TREAT, TREAT.

Our motto in the past has been to give school teachers and Sabbath schools special prices on CANDY, Nuts, Oranges etc., for treating their scholars, and this year we are IN IT on the above mentioned line of goods, and if any house on earth who retails candy can touch bottom, we certainly can this year. Close Clipper.
